

Philippians 4: 4-7

- 4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!
- 5 Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.
- 6 Do not be anxious about anything, but In everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.
- 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

THE ABUNDANCE OF GOD

*The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace . . .
GALATIANS 5:22 RSV*

 We come to God . . . because none of us have it within ourselves, except momentarily, to be joyous. . . .

We try to get it through entertainment. We pay someone to make jokes, . . . sing songs, . . . but that kind of joy never penetrates our lives, never changes our basic constitution. The effects are extremely temporary. . . .

We cannot make ourselves joyful. Joy cannot be commanded, purchased, or arranged. But there is something we can do. We can decide to live in response to the abundance of God and not under the dictatorship of our own poor needs.

(Eugene H. Peterson, A Long Obedience)
